

Introducing 50 new Thematic Collections from AAS Historical Periodicals

EBSCO

Seventeen diverse collections are available now:

Drama, Humor, and Fine Arts Periodicals, 1764-1877 details arts in the development of American culture and includes 240 titles encompassing architecture, the fine arts, theater, and comic serials.

Agricultural Periodicals from the Southern, Midwestern, and Western U.S., 1800-1878 contains over 180 titles that focus on agriculture during the 19th century.

Alternative Medicine and Health Periodicals, 1810-1877 presents over 180 periodicals dedicated to extensive concepts including healthy living and alternative medicine.

Business, Industrial and Professional Periodicals, 1774-1858 contains over 280 periodicals covering the subjects such as business and industry, dating from the Revolutionary to Antebellum eras.

Canadian Periodicals, 1790-1877 offers 87 periodicals published in Canada and focusing Canadian history, literature and politics.

Foreign Language Periodicals in America, 1684-1904 contains over 240 periodicals reflecting a broad range of interests and published in foreign languages primarily from the 18th and 19th centuries.

Military and Law Enforcement Periodicals, 1691-1877 consists of over 120 publications pertaining to the military and to the experiences of soldiers and sailors.

Scientific Periodicals, 1771-1901 contains over 210 publications related chiefly to the hard science disciplines, such as mathematics, astronomy, chemistry, physics, geology (including mining), and more.

Slavery and Abolition, 1789-1887 chronicles the African-American experience during the 19th century with broad subjects and includes a fair amount of titles covering religion and literature.

Women's Periodicals of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century, 1733-1844 contains women's-related periodicals that represent a broad range of subjects and places of publication.

Current Events and History Periodicals, 1691-1912 consists of 160 periodicals about the current events of the 18th and 19th centuries, covering economics and government affairs.

Advertising Periodicals, 1815-1888 features periodicals that were primarily used as advertising vehicles for businesses and industries and covers a wide range of subjects.

Catholic, Lutheran, Methodist, and Episcopal Periodicals 1797-1904 includes church publications, diocesan newspapers, fair periodicals, reports from denominational conferences, and many other titles.

Masons, Odd-Fellows and Other Societal Periodicals, 1794-1877 focuses on friendly, fraternal, 19th century societies, organized based on ethnic, social, or political affiliation.

Periodicals of the American West, 1779-1881 provides scholars with a unique snapshot into the ideas that fueled America's westward expansion.

Popular Educational Periodicals, 1758-1889 contains publications chronicling the wave of lyceums, athenaeums, and universities that sprung up across the United States in the 18th and 19th centuries.

Religious Periodicals for Women, Children, and Families, 1804-1878 focuses on the spiritual and religious lives of women, children, and families.

These collections of historical periodicals provide rich content detailing American history and culture from the mid-18th through the late-19th century. By offering these smaller collections, EBSCO helps you meet the research needs of scholars and the teaching needs of faculty in specific academic departments.

The remaining 33 collections will be available in spring 2014 and include:

- Agricultural Periodicals from the Northeastern U.S. 1789-1879
- Alternative Faith and Philosophy Periodicals, 1789-1878
- American Civil War, 1855-1868
- American Literary Periodicals, 1782-1834
- American Literary Periodicals, 1835-1858
- American Literary Periodicals, 1859-1891
- American Medicine, Surgery, Dentistry Periodicals, 1786-1877
- American Political and Social Movements, 1815-1884
- American Political Periodicals, 1715-1891
- Baptists, Quakers, and Independent Church Periodicals, 1797-1881
- Business and General Education Periodicals, 1800-1885
- Business, Industrial and Professional Periodicals, 1859-1870
- Business, Industrial and Professional Periodicals, 1871-1901
- College and Student Periodicals, 1806-1877
- Commercial Periodicals from the Southern U.S., 1811-1877
- Congregational, Presbyterian, and Reformed Church Periodicals, 1803-1902
- Cultural Periodicals from the Southern U.S., 1797-1877
- Emerging American Religions, 1821-1895
- Fireside Companions and Family Literature Periodicals, 1805-1877
- General Interest Christian Periodicals, 1743-1889
- Hobbies, Socialization, and Sport Periodicals, 1775-1889
- Literary Periodicals of New England, 1789-1878
- Missionary and Charity Periodicals, 1793-1902
- Musical Periodicals, 1781-1879
- Periodicals from Around the World, 1691-1880
- Periodicals of the British Empire and Its Colonies, 1702-1879
- Religious Periodicals from the Southern U.S., 1801-1904
- Story Papers, Dimes and Dollar Periodicals, 1828-1877
- Sunday School Periodicals, 1818-1885
- Temperance in America, 1826-1877
- Theology and Biblical Studies Periodicals, 1760-1877
- Women's Periodicals of the Nineteenth Century, 1845-1865
- Women's Periodicals of the Nineteenth Century, 1866-1891

Contact EBSCO to learn how you can add invaluable content to your permanent collection

800-653-2726 or email information@ebsco.com

www.ebscohost.com/archives

